

Great British Art?

Saturday 24 October – Sunday 10 January

This exhibition is the first of an exciting series to be shown at Norwich Castle from 2009 to 2012 as part of a partnership project called The Great British Art Debate. In this first exhibition we are showing famous works from national collections and old favourites from Norfolk.

Art Workshops for all Key Stages

Our art workshops can help pupils to:

- Look at a variety of art which has been made over the last 300 years
- Think about themselves and their identity through art
- Develop a vocabulary to describe traditional and modern landscapes and portraits
- Create an art piece to take away

Look at Me! – Portraits in Focus

Norwich Castle   1.5 hours

Investigate portraits, learn about pose, facial expressions & settings and enjoy fun practical activities.

Dates By Request

Cost £2.50 per pupil.

Looking at Landscapes (Art and Design)

Norwich Castle   1.5 hours

Be inspired by our collection of landscapes

- From Norfolk scenes to far away places
- From Traditional to Modern

Pupils explore seascape, rural and urban scenes and create their own landscape art.

Dates By Request

Cost £2.50 per pupil.

'Who do you think you are?'

Norwich Castle   2 hours

Looking at and exploring the works in the exhibition, students will create a visual response to how they describe themselves, their identity and sense of place.

Dates By Request

Cost £3.00 per pupil.

Free admission to Norfolk County Council schools.

Free admission to NMAS sites for teachers at any time during normal museum opening hours.
