

Free Jewish Way of Life Exhibition

Monday 25th January to Friday 5th February 2010

Norwich High School for Girls
95 Newmarket Road
Norwich, Norfolk

The Board of Deputies of British Jews will be bringing its Jewish Way of Life Exhibition to Norwich in Spring Term 2010. It will be hosted by Norwich High School for Girls and will be open to all schools in Norfolk.

The Jewish Way of Life Exhibition is designed to enable pupils, students and their teachers to gain a fresh insight into Judaism; a faith and lifestyle that has been sustained for over 5000 years by family values and a clear moral message. JWOLE is a travelling exhibition that has been on the road for over 30 years, but is constantly being improved and updated. The exhibition is suitable for Key Stages 1 to 3 and was written by educationalists to ensure that the teaching of Judaism fully supports all agreed syllabuses.

Visitors will experience Judaism through beautifully illustrated 6ft display panels with clear text, authentic artefact tables and hands on educational activities.

We allow all artefacts to be touched and held because we believe this aids in the educational process.

This is a chance for your pupils to engage with Judaism in an original, exciting 'learning outside the classroom' experience.

The Jewish Way of Life exhibition will be FREE and open for schools from Monday 25th January to Friday 5th February 2010. Each session can accommodate a maximum of forty pupils and there will be three sessions a day:

9.30 to 10.45, 11.00 to 12.15, 1.30 to 2.45

If you would like to make a booking for your school, please fill in the enclosed session booking form and return to Carol Burgess at Norwich PDC, Woodside Road, Norwich. NR7 9QL or fax to 01603 438273 by close Tuesday 5th January 2010. Places are limited so book early to avoid disappointment. If sessions become full you will be offered an alternative.
