Disability Discrimination – keeping up to date

Free twilight sessions

20th and 27th May, 4 – 5.30 pm at The Terrapin

In response to requests from schools following changes in the OFSTED inspections schedule and claims to first tier tribunals, EPSS is offering two training/workshop sessions to all schools.

We shall be looking at the legal responsibilities on schools around disability discrimination including the planning duties, considering case studies and sharing examples of good practice. There will be the opportunity to be updated on legislation including the forthcoming Equality Act, explore the implications of failing to meet legal responsibilities, and develop practice to meet the needs of disabled pupils.

As numbers will be limited please register your interest with Kim Barber, Disability Co-ordinator via e-mail or telephone as above.

We look forward to seeing you then.

Kim Barber and James Thatcher
