

Biodiversity 2010 – Poster Exhibition

7- 20 June 2010

Hostry, Norwich Cathedral

Norwich Cathedral will host a vibrant poster exhibition which will cover a huge range of topics under the broad theme, Biodiversity.

The free poster exhibition is produced by researchers in the Faculty of Science at the University of East Anglia and marks the United Nations' International Year of Biodiversity. The exhibition posters will be informative and accessible to everyone. They will cover a wide range of academic disciplines, such as biology, ecology and environmental sciences – perhaps even inspiring the researchers of the future.

On Sunday 20 June, the exhibition will be manned by the poster presenters who will be on hand to answer questions about their research. There will also be a chance to look at a live display of bees and beetles from 12.00pm-3.00pm.

The exhibition runs in the new Hostry at the Cathedral from 7-20 June and will be open at 9.30am-4.30pm Monday to Saturday and Sundays 12pm-3pm and admission is free.

Other times the exhibition will be manned by researchers:

Tuesday 8 June 1500-1630

Weds 9 June 1400-1530

Thursday 10 June 1130-1300
