Successful Funding Bid for Local Youth Group

Fakenham based, Fadlos Kidz, has been presented with a £5,000 cheque from the Norfolk Charitable Trust allowing the group to continue performing to local audiences for the next five years. The amateur dramatics group has 50 members aged between 7 and 19. Laura Foster, Chief Executive, of the Norfolk Charitable Trust said "Fadlos Kidz is a worthwhile project for young people. Fakenham is an area with limited entertainment resources for youngsters and Fadlos Kidz provides an outlet for their energies. We felt that the group deserved the financial support to match the hours of voluntary time given up for the children. It is a successful group who can now continue to grow and progress. We are very happy to help."

The Norfolk Charitable Trust support many projects in and around Norfolk, promoting community, business and cohesion. More information is available on their website www.norfolkcharitabletrust.com Fadlos Kidz' production of the West End smash "Hairspray" will be performed at Fakenham Community Centre July 14th - 17th 2010.

FADLOS Presents..Showbiz 2010

May 11th to 15th

Its all systems go at twice weekly rehearsals for the annual May production from FADLOS. For this year they have returned to a format popular a few years ago with a compilation show called SHOWBIZ

2010. Think of it as a Fakenham version of the Royal Variety Performance- on a smaller scale with no royalty!

The show will contain popular music from hit shows such as Miss Saigon, Les Miserables, The Full Monty, Mamma Mia, We Will Rock You, Evita and Jesus Christ Superstar and more besides. Maybe your particular favourite will turn up, who knows! These will be a mix of solo pieces and group numbers within several 20 minute themed sections. There will also be a section of music and anecdotes devoted to the 1940's war years, which promises to be both informative and entertaining. Audience participation here is very much the expected thing! Linking this together will be short comedy sketches from well loved TV sitcoms. All this plus energetic dance numbers and a good old sing-song is surely a recipe for a great foot-tapping night of entertainment with something for everyone!

Tickets £5-£7 go on sale on Thursday April the 15th from our new centrally placed box office inside the wonderful SWEETS 'N' THINGS at 30 Upper Market Fakenham. From 9am till 5pm Monday to Saturday. Tel no 07790 947055

London 2012 Open Weekend, Inspire Programme and Big Screen info. event

Norfolk County Council is holding a free event for those who are interested to learn more about how you or your organisation can get involved in planning activities around the London 2012 Open Weekend, the Inspire Programme and Norwich's Big Screen.

The Open Weekend (which takes place from Friday 23rd - Sunday 25th July), the Inspire Programme and Norwich's Big Screen are the three key ways that anyone in the county can get involved with London 2012- and with only two (and a bit!) years to go, now is the time to hear more and start planning.

The event is being held at County Hall on Monday 26th April and will comprise of a morning of presentations and Q&A's between 10am and 12pm with a break for lunch, after which there will be an opportunity for one to one sessions with the speakers from 1-4pm.

Half hour 'surgery' sessions can then be booked in the afternoon with Liz Hughes for cultural projects and Joseph Ballard for all other areas (such as Education, Sport, Health, Volunteering, Business and Sustainability). Times and places will be allocated on a first come first served basis.

To book your place for both the morning presentations and one to one sessions, please reply to ed.perkins@norfolk.gov.uk, stating if you wish to attend both morning and afternoon and whom you would like a surgery session with.

Mentoring Opportunities: NUCA

Norwich University College of the Arts in partnership with the Evolve Norfolk project, are offering all final year students interested in making a career within the creative industries the opportunity to take part in a Mentoring for the Creative Industries scheme. The scheme will match a current student, soon to graduate, with a mentor who is already working in the field they wish to pursue their career after graduation. The role of the mentor is to offer advice and guidance on how they got started in their careers and tips on how to continue their professional practice post graduation. We are looking for new mentors to join the scheme from all areas of the creative and cultural sectors. There is a small fee payable to cover expenses and your time, the mentoring lasts for up to 6 months and we envisage you should have contact with your mentee at least once a month. Please find attached an information leaflet with more details and a registration form. If you would like to discuss the opportunity further or have specific questions, please contact Caroline Bailey, Alumni Officer at: c.bailey@nuca.ac.uk or telephone 01603 756288. For more information on Evolve Norfolk, please visit: www.evolvernorfolk.co.uk

Funding

ASDA Foundation

The ASDA Foundation supports a range of good causes around the UK, including support to charities, playgroups and football teams. The foundation exists primarily to give support to existing projects being run by ASDA colleagues. Applications are open to all registered charities, community groups and individuals in the UK, as long as they have the support and involvement of local ASDA colleagues. The ASDA Foundation was set up in 1988 and is funded by profits from the mid-week national lottery. For further information, visit:

The Elephant Trust

deadline: 28 June 2010

The Elephant Trust was created in 1975 by Roland Penrose and Lee Miller with a view to develop and improve the knowledge, understanding and appreciation of the fine arts in the United Kingdom. It is committed to helping artists and institutions that depart from the routine and signal new, distinct and imaginative sets of possibilities. Applicants are asked to consider the above carefully to be sure their project falls within the remit of The Elephant Trust.

Grants have usually been limited to £2,000 but larger grants may be considered. Priority is now being given to artists in the visual arts and to small organisations and galleries working with them. The Trust appreciates well argued, imaginative proposals from artists or small supporting institutions to make or produce new work.

For more information, visit the Elephant Trust website at www.elephanttrust.org.uk.

Enhancing Communities Programme (UK)

Under the Enhancing Communities Programme grants of up to £50,000 are available to not for profit organisations, community groups, parish councils, local authorities and charities for projects that make physical improvements to community facilities and historic buildings / structures. There are now 70 new qualifying SITA UK waste treatment sites included in the programme and new funding opportunities for communities in Avon,

East Anglia, Kent, London, and Yorkshire. SITA will accept applications from projects which are within 3 miles of qualifying SITA UK waste processing sites.

The next closing date for applications is the 4th June 2010 for the small grants scheme and the 14th July 2010 for the large grants scheme. For more information, visit: <http://www.sitatrust.org.uk/community-funding>

Britain Sasakawa Foundation Grants Programme (UK)

Schools in the UK that wish to develop links with Japan and Japanese schools are able to apply for funding through the Britain Sasakawa Foundation. The Foundation makes small grants of up to £1,500 to support activities that support the study of the Japanese language and culture, School, Education and Youth exchanges. In the past the Foundation has made grants towards visits between the UK and Japan between teachers and young people and the teaching and development of Japanese language and cultural studies in schools. The next application deadline is the 31st August 2010. For more information, visit: <http://www.gbsf.org.uk/>

Film Fund (UK)

The UK Film Council has announced that they have £15 million a year to invest across the development, production and completion of feature films through the Film Fund. The fund will support UK filmmakers who are emerging or world class and capable of creating distinctive and entertaining work. Applications are welcome for all kinds of film - from commercial mainstream to experimental, from genre movies to personal stories, from documentaries to animation to live-action fiction. Applicants will need to submit two written proposals - one creative, and one strategic. For more information, visit: <http://www.ukfilmcouncil.org.uk/filmfund>

Parks for People (UK)

The Heritage Lottery Fund (HLF) has announced that the next closing date for applications to the Parks for People programme is the 31st August 2010. Launched originally as a joint initiative with the Big Lottery Fund full responsibility for the programme has now passed to the Heritage Lottery Fund Local Authorities as well as not for profit organisations that own public parks and gardens can apply for grants of between £250,000 and £5 million for the regeneration of parks and public gardens (including squares, walks and promenades). Applicants will need to raise at least 30 % of the project costs from their own sources and partnership funding, either as cash or non-cash contributions. The 'Parks for People' programme has a two-stage application process. If a Stage One Pass is awarded, applicants can submit a Stage 2 application. For more information, visit:

O2 Launches New Programme for Young People (UK)

O2 has announced the launch of a new programme to support projects by young people (13 - 25) that have a positive impact upon their community. The new programme "Think Big" will offer young people up to £300 in grants as well as training, support and mentoring from a number of youth charities. These include the National Youth Agency and UK Youth. Examples of projects that could be supported could include fighting knife crime, starting local youth groups, teaching skills to other young people or renovating community spaces. Eligible projects should be run by young people for young people, and may have the opportunity to apply for a further £2,500 to continue their work.

Applications can be submitted by individual young people or groups of young people and can be submitted at any time. For more information, visit <http://www.o2thinkbig.co.uk/>

Fund for Disabled Artists (UK)

Unlimited is a new £1.5 million UK-wide disability arts commissioning fund being run as part of the London 2012 Cultural Olympiad. The aim of the fund is to commission new work that is artistically led by disabled people. Grants of between £25,000 and £50,000 are available to disabled and Deaf artists, and disabled and Deaf-led arts organisations, who wish to develop their work, strengthen their artistic practice, challenge perceptions and forge new partnerships with presenting venues and events.

There are a number of application deadlines for applications. These are the 1st October 2010 and the 18th April 2011. For more information, visit <http://www.artscouncil.org.uk/funding/unlimited/>
